

Wage and Hour Division, Labor

§ 523.2

§ 522.102 Issuance of learner certificates.

In the absence of exceptional circumstances applications for the employment of learners at wages lower than the statutory minimum wage in the small electrical products industry shall be denied.

[32 FR 665, Jan. 20, 1967]

§ 522.103 Learner certificates in exceptional circumstances.

In each case where a prima facie showing of exceptional circumstances is initially made to the Administrator, the applicant will be given an opportunity to demonstrate at a public hearing, by reliable, probative, and substantial evidence, that the denial of the applicant for a special learner certificate will curtail opportunities for employment and that the granting of such certificate will not give a competitive advantage to the applicant or tend to depress working standards for experienced workers in the industry. At the public hearing interested persons will have full opportunity to appear, testify, and conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. In each case in which exceptional circumstances are shown to exist under the standards provided in this section, a special certificate for the employment of learners at wages less than the statutory minimum wage shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the general learner regulations (§§ 522.1 to 522.9).

SOURCE: 3 FR 2485, Oct. 15, 1938, unless otherwise noted.

§ 523.1 Application for messengers.

Application may be made to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor, Washington, DC 20210, to employ messengers to be engaged primarily in delivering letters and messages at a wage lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1062; 29 U.S.C. 206) whenever employment at such lower rate is necessary to prevent curtailment of employment opportunities.

[3 FR 2485, Oct. 15, 1938, as amended at 15 FR 603, Feb. 3, 1950]

§ 523.2 Applications by groups or individuals.

Such application may be filed by an employer or employee or group of employers or employees. Preferential considerations will be given, however, to applications filed by groups or organizations which are deemed to be representative of the interests of a whole industry or branch thereof.
